pill, what is the resident physician going to do? Its a cinch that if he believes his own school of medicine he won't tackle a dangerous fever with any such faith cure as that; but if he doesn't follow instructions there'll be a row. I think if I were the resident physician, I'd send out a general police alarm for the attending homeopathist, and let him handle his own attenuations and his own patients.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

SUGAR AND STOCKS.

With large quantities of Hawaiian sugars of this year's crop yet to reach market, it is cheering to note a continued upward price movement. Centrifugals, 96 degrees test, at 3.9375c. a pound, $78.75 a ton, show an advance since last weekly report of $1.25 a ton. European beets at a parity of $80.80 a ton are the eighty cents better.

Vacation would appear to be the busy time for the stockbrokers. More business was reported on Monday for the week July 15-22, when sessions of the Exchange were suspended, than had been done in many a week before, and only one small transaction was reported for the reopening day itself. The following were the sales for vacation week: Ewa ($20), 85 at 25.25, 70, 125, 40, 20, 12, 18 at 25.12½; Honokaa ($20), 25 at 10.12½; H. C. & S. ($100), 100, 20, 20, 50 at 79.25 (all but last in S. F.); I. I. S. N. Co. ($100), 35, 10 at 125; O. R. & L. Co. Following are the week's board sales: Wailua ($100), 10, 5 at 70, 5 at 70.25; Ewa ($20), 20, 35, 10 at 25.12½; O. R. & L. Co. ($100), 10 at 99; I. I. S. N. Co. ($100), 18 at 125; Hon. Brewing & M. Co. ($20), 25 at 25.25; Oahu Sugar ($20), 40 at 24; H. C. & S. Co. ($100), 20 at 80; Olua ($20), 100 at 3.50. Thursday had no sales.

REAL ESTATE TRANSACTIONS.

While the real estate agencies appear to have nothing special to report, such sales as have taken place indicate wonderful steadiness of values for the times. James F. Morgan yesterday sold four lots in Kapiolani Park Addition, the purchaser being James E. Sheehan, for $180 or $45 a lot, which is within $5 of the price put on those lots in boom times.

A release of $3500 is recorded, from Martha Berger to Wentworth M. Buchanan, on land with buildings at Kinu and Beretania avenue. Deeds are recorded as follows: A. B. Lindsay and wife to Paauhau Sugar Plantation Co., lands and buildings, Kalua, Hamakua, Hawaii, $2750; Sereno E. Bishop and wife to Filumena Benavides, two lots in Kalihi tract, Honolulu, $1000; H. M. Coke and wife to F. G. H. Duarte, interest in land at Puako, Wailuku, Maui, $1000; M. S. Nevite and wife to F. G. Duarte, portion Kuleana, Puako, $1320; Matilda B. Sackwitz and husband to trustee of Mary Kearns, two lots in Gulick tract, Honolulu, $1550; Queen's Hospital to Mrs. Jas. G. Spencer, 3.1 acres in Nuuanu valley, Honolulu, $4500; Walter Eugene Wall and Herman Focke to Board of Hawaiian Evangelical Association, four lots in Highland Park, Manoa valley, Honolulu, $10,500; W. E. Wall and H. Focke to Edith Winifred Blackman, block in Highland Park, $1045.

SOME PUBLIC MATTERS.

At a sale of public lands held by Commissioner Pratt, a parcel of 190.5 acres went to George J. Campbell for $763, one dollar over upset price, and the lease of fifty-seven acres of land at Lahaina for four years to Pioneer Mill Co. at an annual rental of $329.

The Land Commissioner has received nine more right-of-purchase leases from residents of Kalaheo, Kauai. This makes sixty-five lots that have been taken up in that tract. The lots average about eight acres each. Those who are taking up the land are mostly Portuguese. The lands will be planted to pineapples.

The Thompson Settlement Association has selected the twelve lots its members desire in Kau district. The lots are being advertised for the thirty days required before the settlers enter upon them. The area is 587.7 acres, and appraised value $8245.

At 10 o'clock tomorrow the Land Commissioner will hold the first auction sale of suburban homestead lots in the Alewa tract, Honolulu. Upset prices are moderate and there has been much inquiry about the lots.

A cablegram from Assistant Secretary Winthrop of the Treasury Department to the Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., to "proceed with the Mahuka site according to department's acceptance of April 2." This leaves no doubt that the Mahuka site is the final choice for the Federal building in Honolulu.

Auditor Fisher's monthly statement on the condition of the Territorial treasury shows current receipts for June as $108,678.74 against $80,710.77 for June last year; an increase of $27,967.97. This comes mainly from general taxes and small increases in various departments, but shows all the better from the fact that the item of fines and costs, over $5000 last year, is absent from this June account. Current account expenditures amounted to $381,489.60, or $113,432.43 more than in June, 1906. The counties were paid $159,555.67 as compared with $88,000 the corresponding month last year. Payments from loan fund were $30,118.69, or $2,770.28 less than same month of 1906. The current cash balance was $348,216.51 against $353,331.37 the same time last year. There is $248,772.03 in the loan fund as compared with $806,399.56 a year ago. The loan indebtedness was $3,718,000, being $143,000 less than on June 30, 1906.

Plans are prepared for the new courthouse at Wailuku, Maui, for which the Legislature appropriated $25,000. It will be built of hollow concrete blocks.

Prof. Walter W. Froggatt, Government entomologist of New South Wales, arrived in the Manuka to remain in Hawaii for several weeks. He is on an official trip around the world representing the several states of Australia in the interests of controlling the insect pests of that country and is giving particular attention to fruit-flies and insects affecting live stock. The visit of such a specialist may prove of great value. It is not generally known, yet a fact, that thousands of sheep on Hawaiian ranges have perished of some pest or other within a year or two past.

GENERAL ITEMS.

Kona district on the Island of Hawaii is reported in thriving condition. J. B. Castle's development scheme has enlisted various industries. Many settlers are planting cane and all the remaining available labor of the section is employed in the building of houses and the harvesting of coffee.

In view of the great interest taken here twenty years ago in the problem of clearing ramie fiber economically, the news seems important that a process has been discovered in New York by which ramie fiber, ready for manufacturing into textile fabrics, thread and cordage, can be turned out at less than half the price of cotton, or a figure not exceeding six to seven cents a pound.

An interesting event in business circles was the opening of the Honolulu Commercial Club, occupying the whole fourth floor of the McCandless building, on Saturday evening before last. It starts with a membership of nearly 170. The Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Co.'s mill at Puunene, Maui, the largest raw sugar factory in the world, finished grinding this season's crop week before last. It had ground 360,629 tons of cane, making something like 44,000 tons of sugar.

Arthur P. R. Bindt, who lately kept a soda water and cigar stand, has gone into voluntary bankruptcy with liabilities of $1606 and assets of $103. His stand had been destroyed under condemnation proceedings and he was unable to obtain a fresh start.

Ocean steam arrivals for the week have been the Mongolia from China and Japan, the Manuka from Sydney, the Pondo from Wellington, the Nebraska from Salina Cruz, the Virginia from Newcastle, N. S. W., the America Maru from San Francisco and the Moana from Vancouver. Departures have been the Pondo for Vancouver, the Alameda for San Francisco, the Manuka for Vancouver, the Mongolia for San Francisco and the Moana for Sydney.

CHINESE KITCHEN BOYS HAVE FEUD

Some of the Chinese employees of the Alexander Young Hotel got into a mix-up yesterday, as a result of which Ping Ching is under arrest, charged with an assault with a deadly weapon. Ching was surrounded by a number of the other Chinese boys and got a revolver, with which he is said to have threatened to lay out the bunch, resulting in a masterly retreat of the enemy. The affair took place in the lower part of the hotel, not in the kitchen, which is presided over by Chef Chevalier, and where, he says, he has always seen that the peace was religiously preserved.

JAPANESE WANT HOTEL LICENSES

Nipponese Bonifaces Aspire to Young and Church's Class.

There was a meeting of the Board of License Commissioners yesterday afternoon. It was expected that Judge Perry would present his argument for a rehearing in the case of Olvera for the Cobweb saloon, but he was not able to be present.

The application of Hisamatsu Hirano for a hotel license was received. This is the one hundred and tenth application for a license made to the License Board. It is wanted for a Japanese hotel that extends from Kukul street to Bishop lane, about a hundred feet west of Nuuanu avenue. Hirano says in his application that his hotel contains twenty-four furnished rooms, three dining rooms, and six dining tables. His petition is gotten up in faultless form, and includes a well-traced map of the region for a thousand feet in each direction, together with the names of the owners of every parcel of land within that area.

Hirano wants a license in the same class as that of the Young, the Moana, the Seaside and the Hawaiian, and the privileges, like them, of selling on Sundays and after hours. This is the first application for a hotel license from a Japanese, but it is expected that there will be several others.

The board spent the most of the afternoon in the joyless task of reading and approving minutes. A day will be set for hearing Judge Perry in the Cobweb saloon matter.

DOG CATCHER GETS INTO A MIX-UP

The official dog catcher of the police department created a scene on King street, near Nuuanu avenue, yesterday afternoon and was the object of a good many uncomplimentary remarks from a crowd which gathered. In his official capacity he had lassoed a dog, the property of a woman marketer, who tried to rescue her pet and tell the officer that the taxes had been regularly paid. The officer was fairly well on his way towards intoxication, however, and refused to listen, becoming more or less abusive. The dog was finally taken away from him by some members of the crowd and the lady and the rescued canine put in a hack. Catching dogs is a job that calls for a good deal of tact, and the clearest-headed officer is apt to get into trouble, much more so one who carried on as the dog catcher did yesterday.

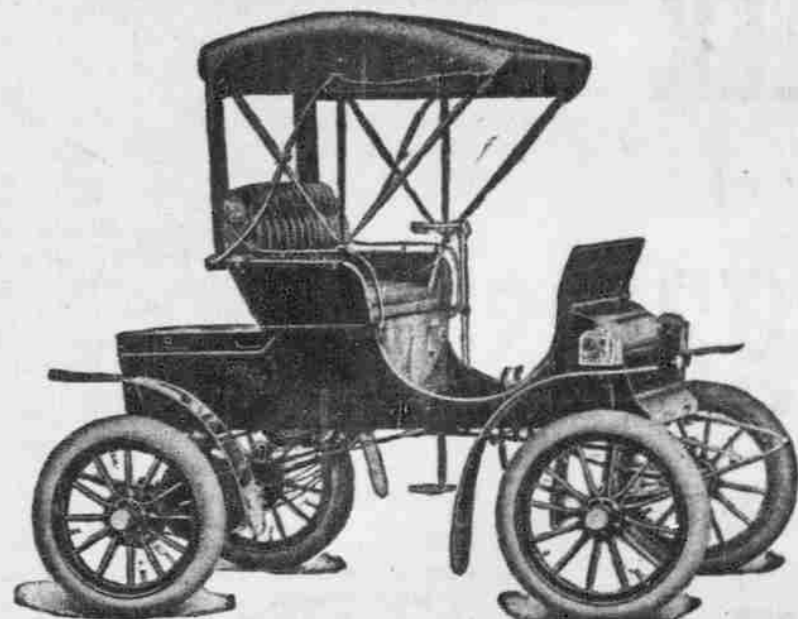

Walter—Mr. Brown's left his umbrella again, sir. I do believe he'd leave his head if it were loose. Robinson—I dare say you're right. I heard him say only yesterday he was going to Switzerland for his lungs.—Ally Sloper.

"Why do you dislike him so?" asked Mrs. Galley. "He's a member of your club, isn't he?" "Yes," replied Galley. "but he has no business to be." "Why, what's the matter? Doesn't he drink?" —Catholic Standard and Times.
